Seasonal Splendour in Dobwalls

Dobwalls Parish Council wishes you a

Super Spring

and Enjoyable Easter

Published February 2025

THE main photograph on the front page is of Spring flowers in the garden of a Dobwalls resident last year. And below, the same villager snapped this young blackbird enjoying a Spring Shower!

Mind you, based on some of the weather we've been having, the bird's beak would have come in very handy to break through the ice on the bird bath! The photographs at the bottom of the front page were taken outside Dobwalls Memorial Hall last Spring. The Villager editorial team is always pleased to receive pictures from readers of the magazine. We've had some cracking photos sent in to us in the past and look forward to more. This Spring 2025 edition includes more images from the enthusiastic photographer—and gardener—from Springs gone by. And, just look at the photos opposite, highlighting an upcoming school reunion. This recent photo on the right is of the snowdrops on the bank beside the road through Dobwalls.

WERE YOU AT DOBWALLS PRIMARY SCHOOL BETWEEN 1965 & 1975?

If so, read on and take a close look at the photographs.

TWO former pupils have organised a reunion—Steve Finch and a classmate Dianne Worth. It will be on Saturday, July 19, at the Dobwalls Football Club, from 7.00pm to 11.00pm.

Steve explains and reminisces: "We want to hear from any pupils who went to the village school between 1965 and 1975. The photos cover pretty much the entire age range we are looking to identify. We chose this age range as it will be between 50 and 60 years since we started. And hasn't it changed since then. When we started it was just the old building. Check out https://www.francisfrith.com/ to see it in all its glory in 1965. Some super old photos of the village from that time as well!

"A demountable classroom was added in 1967/68, just in time for Sir Francis Chichester's solo around the world attempt in Gypsy Moth. I remember it clearly as every week there was a school's radio programme announcing where he was and we had to find his location on the map of the world and put in a pin. Good times and lots of other great memories!!

"Please contact myself or Dianne if you are interested, or know of anyone who would be interested, in coming to the reunion. There will be a bar and, if we get enough saying 'yes' to attending, there'll be a burger bar."

Steve's mobile is 07847 139 878 and Diane's is 07922408867. Their email addresses are: steve@thefinches.co.uk and bertsboykelly@gmail.com

The Highwayman rides Again!

AS everyone will have seen, the village pub is back in business and the team in the saddle are optimistic about its future and are promising a family-friendly pub with the best of pub grub — and it won't be highway robbery!

The return of the Highwayman after being closed for several months is great news for Dobwalls village and the parish. The landlady is Nicole Chamberlain and her business partner is accountant Simon Barker, who is the licensee.

Nicole Chamberlain & Simon Barker

Nicole, who has lived in the village for 15 years and was the pub's bar supervisor for well over a year before it closed in October 2024, says: "I didn't like to see the pub closed because it's the hub of the village and the wider community. Also, I wanted to see it run by somebody from the village, and that somebody is me!

"My focus now is to create a 'local' which is a friendly, family pub which I hope people will come along and support. I cannot do enough for people and pride myself in five-star customer service."

Nicole believes that, in spite of the overall economic situation, she's not taking a big gamble because her recipe for success is built on offering good food and entertainment for young and old.

Food will be on offer from March 7. There's a new menu compiled by chef Darren Moses, an experienced cook with more than 20 years' experience. Nicole says Darren's excited about bringing his own touch to the kitchen and providing excellent pub food, including a Sunday Carvery. TURN TO PAGE 31

ARE YOU PROUD OF WHERE YOU LIVE?

THEN CELEBRATE IT AS PART OF THE LOOE VALLEYS FESTIVAL

THE Looe Valleys Festival is taking place throughout the month of April. It's called "We are of this place - A'n tyller ma on ni"

Sue Brownlow, one of the community festival organisers, says: "We are encouraging people who live in the towns and parishes covered by the festival, and that includes Dobwalls, to get involved.

"You could put on a special event as part of the festival or simply link an existing event during the month of April into the festival."

The festival involves a group of town and parish councils and other community groups and individuals in the East and West Looe Valleys whose members are all proud of the place they live and want to celebrate it across the community. It all ties in with the "Moor to Sea" project and The Smugglers' Way.

Sue promises the festival will have something for everyone who lives in the area to take part in, contribute and learn: "Events will be run by local groups in a programme led by volunteers. There'll be guided walks, local produce and craft markets, regenerative farming and climate change events, storytelling, a rockpool ramble and other events on the coast, looking at water quality in our rivers and, of course, Easter events in our village halls and churches."

In the Dobwalls area there are plans for a mini-walk at Moorswater for young archaeologists and a British Heart Foundation family cycle ride setting off from Penhale Pantry down to Lerryn.

The festival is setting up a webpage and email address to gather ideas and suggestions and publicise the festival programme. Sean Jackson, whose series of parish walks in The Villager magazine have been very popular, will update The Villager Facebook page—

https://www.facebook.com/thevillagerdobwalls

No walk from Sean in this edition but he's threatening to come up with something a bit different in the Summer edition. He's looking at venturing a little further than usual to explore a bit of our part of The Smugglers' Way and also delve into the exciting "Moor to Sea" project. TURN OVER TO FIND OUT MORE

THE Smugglers' Way is a long-distance coast-to-coast walking route from Looe to Boscastle which is around 36 miles (58km). The route takes you through several notable places such as Bodmin Moor, Jamaica Inn, Dobwalls, Herodsfoot and Sowden's Bridge. The first section of the route is the beautiful West Looe Valley to Liskeard before going across Bodmin Moor via Dozmary Pool, Jamaica Inn, Brown Willy and Rough Tor. As you leave the moor and make your way to the North Coast, you will drop into the Valency Valley and follow the river to Boscastle. You can find out more at www.moortosea.org.uk The first funded stage of the "way" is from Looe to Liskeard and then rising up into the moor from beyond the town. For the actual crossing of the moor, that rises to over 1300 feet on the summit of Brown Willy. Experienced navigational skills are recommended! Bodmin Moor is renowned for mists and changeable weather, so always check the weather forecast before starting your journey and wear appropriate footwear. Also, ensure you take an Ordnance Survey map or app with you, but be aware that mobile reception can be unreliable. Work is continuing to develop signage and improve accessibility along The Smugglers' Way route with the help of town and parish councils, landowners and funding partners.

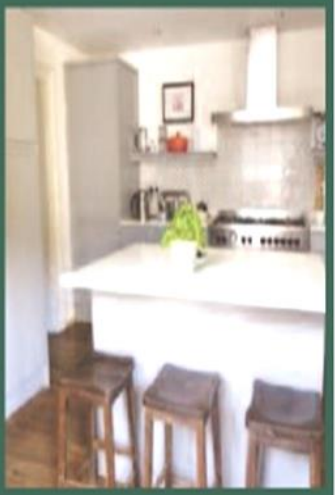

"Moor to Sea" is a Heritage Lottery funded project. It aims to collect and record the stories, memories and traditions of the river valleys between Liskeard and Looe. History is all around — in families and communities, in the living memories and the experiences of older people and others in the community. It's an oral history project which will only reach its true potential if people are willing to share their experiences.

A VERY SAFE PAIR OF HANDS — LILY IS OFF TO GERMANY!

FOR the first time ever a Dobwalls Football Club junior team member has been selected by Kernow Youth Select for an international tour.

The under-14s keeper Lily Austin is off to Germany in June.

Kernow Youth Select scouts teams all over Cornwall to find players with the right ability and attitude to create teams to represent the county in competitions abroad.

A spokesman for Dobwalls Football Club junior teams says: “We are very proud of Lily as this is the first time a Dobwalls player has been selected by the organisation. Well done Lily and best of luck.”

DOBWALLS BEER & CIDER FESTIVAL AND FAMILY FUN DAY

A COUPLE of dates for your diary — Friday and Saturday, July 25 & 26, at Dobwalls Football Club. That’s when and where the annual beer and cider festival in aid of Cornwall Air Ambulance is on this year, but the Saturday will be something special.

Brian Clark, one of the organisers, explains: “The Friday will be a traditional festival day with live music, but Saturday will be a family fun day. So, alongside the festival’s second day there will also be numerous family activities, from face painting, bouncy castles and food stalls to axe throwing and lots more. There’s live music all day Saturday, good beer and cider and all in aid of the air ambulance.”

Anyone who would like to get involved in any way, help the organisers or put something on during the Saturday fun day should contact Brian Clark —

brian.clark@dobwallspc.org.uk

The football club is looking forward to hosting the two days and says it will be delighted to welcome as many people as possible to the club. So, put the dates in your diary or on your phone so you don’t forget and miss out.

What your local GPs and East Cornwall Primary Care Network (ECPCN) can do for you!

ECPCN is the network which covers seven GP practices in South East Cornwall — Oak Tree, Old Bridge, Port View, Quay Lane, Rame Group, Rosedean and Saltash Health Centre. Roland Gude, from the ECPCN, is keen to highlight some of the services on offer to patients in addition to their normal GP service.

Roland lists them: "Mental Health Link workers – help and support for those experiencing issues impacting their mental wellbeing.

Normal Magic – specialist mental health support for people under the age of 18. This can be arranged with your GP or self-referral via the website below.

Social prescribing – help and support to those who wish to improve their health and wellbeing. The service will signpost you to services that will tailor individual support.

Employment specialists – a service supporting anyone with significant mental illness to find and maintain employment of your choice.

Music for Good – support provided by a practitioner using music as a way of promoting wellbeing. A specialist music and pain group is also available.

Health for homeless – health support for anyone who is homeless or in temporary accommodation.

Pain café – a group for those experiencing persistent pain.

Veterans' social prescriber drop-in – personalised support for those who have served in the armed forces and their families.

First light domestic abuse drop-in – help and support for those who experience domestic abuse or sexual violence."

THE PAVEMENTS ARE FOR PUPILS — NOT FOR CARS!

IT'S A tight squeeze, but it shouldn't be. This photo shows pupils of Dobwalls Primary School and a parent coming out of Highwood Park to turn left down Duloe Road on their way to school. They are just managing to use the pavement but sometimes the gap is so tight they have to walk out into the road. Some people believe the indiscriminate and inconsiderate parking at school drop-off and pick-up times is an accident waiting to happen. One Highwood Park resident is so angry he's threatening to set up a Facebook "name and shame" page carrying car registration numbers.

The parish council is asking the local Police Community Support Officer Steve Edser if it's possible to get the police to visit the area to speak to car drivers.

The council chairman John Dunn says: "If kids have to walk in the road to get to school it's just not on."

Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe says: "I have had many complaints from local residents about the dangerous parking around the school, on pavements and blocking driveways on nearby estates at peak times and I am very concerned for the safety of the school children.

"Your children's safety is of paramount importance and please can we work together to make sure there is not a serious accident. This congestion will only become worse when the new housing opposite the school is built."

Cllr Pascoe was instrumental in getting Cornwall Council to hand the car park in the centre of the village over to the parish council: "It's your car park and it's free. It would be great to see it used for school drop-offs and pick-ups. "It's only 500 steps from the car park to the school gate via Tamblin Avenue."

The irate Highwood Park resident says: "The school parking issue has been going for years and has been reported to school on many occasions. I for one would like to set up a Facebook group and post photos of bad parking around the village. Hopefully a shame tactic would work as we can't expect the police to be there every day."

The school headteacher Kathryn Pipe has this comment: "As a school, we continue to encourage parents through our communication methods to park safely to support pupils, parents and the wider Dobwalls community."

THE HALL'S CORNISH HEDGE — BEFORE AND AFTER

IT'S A BIG shout out from the Dobwalls Memorial Hall trustees to Lee from local company, 1st Choice Home and Garden Maintenance, for the fantastic job he has done to clear the vegetation from the hall wall.

Trustee Rowena Fletcher says: "We've been able to do this work thanks to the support from the community at the hall bingo and craft fare events and it's made a big difference to the look of the hall boundary."

The trustees are also hoping that works to repair the car park will be completed by the end of March, including a two-metre width restriction bollard at the entrance gate. Rowena explains: "This is to prevent the damage to the car park caused by larger vehicles using it as a turning area. The cost of repairing that sort of damage is enormous and well beyond the resources of the hall."

The trustees want to thank everyone who attended the hugely popular Christmas Bingo sessions. Rowena: "We really appreciate the brilliant support from you all. These very special bingo evenings are enjoyed by everyone and are a wonderful example of our great community spirit. Bingo will continue on the first and third Saturdays of the month but, as always, please check the noticeboard outside the hall and the Dobwalls Community Facebook page for any updates."

"Skol Gynsa Fosow Dobb" - Dobwalls Primary School in Cornish!

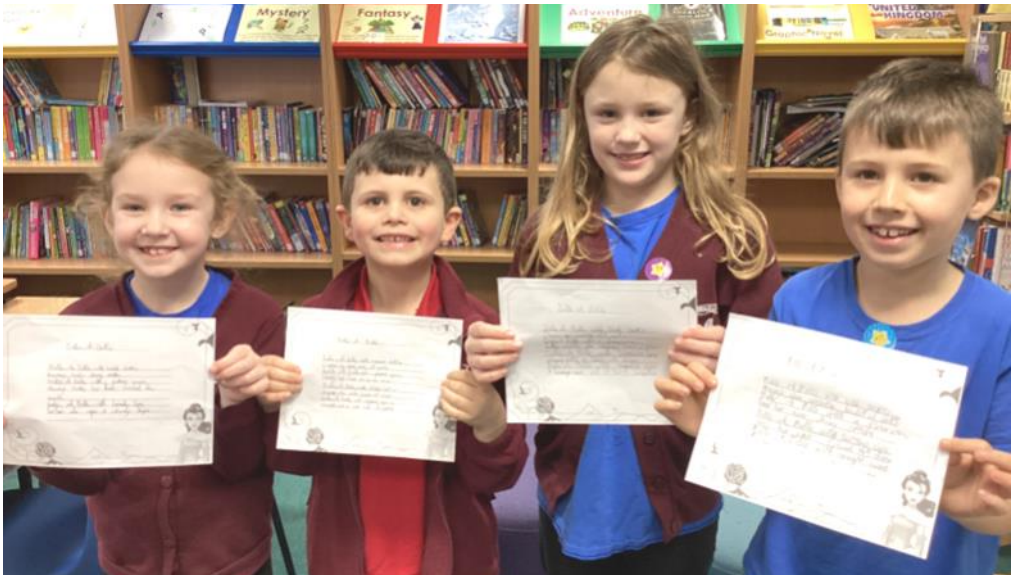

SCHOOL pupils and staff are continuing to learn new words in Cornish as part of the Go Cornish project.

Headteacher Kathryn Pipe explains: "Go Cornish exists to give everyone in Cornwall and beyond the opportunity to learn something of the Cornish language and to discover the culturally rich heritage of our amazing patch of the planet. The children are really enjoying learning a few words such as 'dydh da' hello and 'mar pleg' please. We sang 'We Wish You a Merry Christmas' in Cornish and are learning the chorus of 'Cornwall My Home' in Cornish."

The school enjoyed a live production of the pantomime "Beauty and the Beast" in the hall. Kathryn: "It was so wonderful to see the children laughing and responding throughout the show. So many smiles, giggles and laughter! At the end, the comments which came from the children were 'that was so good', 'that was awesome', 'that was the best one!' and more! Thank you so much for your support.

"This has led to poetry writing with much fun and exploration with rhyme!"

In the Cross-Country League the school has taken part in two races so far. Kathryn says: “We are so proud of each and every child. Twentyeight children ran in the Cothele Estate event. There was a superb performance by all, with many gaining personal bests.

“And, we had our first time ever 1st and 2nd place. A huge ‘well done’ to Ebony and India.

“Bring on the next race!”

“One and all, believing in ourselves and others”

THE GOVERNMENT'S MANDATORY HOUSING TARGETS

A "KICK IN THE TEETH" FOR THE NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT PLAN?

THE new government has given all councils in England new housing targets as part of its plan for 1.5 million more homes. In Cornwall the target has shot up from 2,707 a year to 4,454.

Here are the thoughts of Cllr John Dunn, the chairman of Dobwalls Parish Council: "A dedicated group of local volunteers spent several years creating a Neighbourhood Development Plan for the area covered by the Dobwalls and Trewidland Parish.

"The draft plan, which had to comply with the government's National Planning Policy Framework, was a genuine attempt to identify the needs of the plan area and protect the character and environment of the parish from over-development of housing.

"The draft plan was the subject of a referendum in April last year. The result was overwhelmingly in support of the plan - 343 votes for and only 32 against - a majority in favour of 311.

"The plan was approved and adopted by Cornwall Council which now has to refer to the policies in the plan when it considers planning applications and proposals for anywhere in the plan area.

"Now the new government has revised the National Planning Policy Framework which increases Cornwall Council's mandatory housing target from 2,707 a year to 4,454. I think it's fair to assume that to meet that target Cornwall Council will be looking to areas across the county to absorb more housing, including the Dobwalls and Trewidland Neighbourhood Development Plan area. The revised planning policy framework states - 'Adherence to neighbourhood and local plans is critical, with potential restrictions on size, location or design'. Let's hope so.

"If Cornwall Council is forced to side-step its legal duty to take our neighbourhood development plan into consideration and ride roughshod over the plan policies to meet its housing target then that would be a kick in the teeth for grass roots democracy - the people of the plan area who gave such a resounding 'yes' to the plan at the referendum.

"This government was democratically elected at the ballot box in July last year. It must not use that mandate and its majority in the House of Commons to arbitrarily brush aside the democratic wishes of local people for the future of their area which they expressed in the referendum."

EASTER AT DOBWALLS UNITED CHURCH

THE CHURCH has taken great pride in years gone by in adorning the Easter Cross with daffodils and other flowers during the Easter Sunday morning service. The flowers were donated by members of the congregation. The cross was then carried outside to the churchyard and erected so it could be seen by people coming to church and everyone passing by on the main road. The photograph shows just how colourful it was.

However, times have changed. The church's senior steward Doris Taylor explains: "Now the daffodils, the centre piece of the cross, are long gone before Easter arrives, particularly this year when Easter is so late. Other flowers can be so expensive and, because of the rising cost of living, it isn't fair to ask members of the congregation to contribute to the cross unless they feel they can. So, what we're doing now is erecting the cross as usual and inviting anyone, not just church members, to come along and place flowers in pots at the base of the cross."

Weekly Sunday morning services are at 9.30am, with the following exceptions: March 16, 10.00am, Connon; March 30, Mothering Sunday Service, Dobwalls, 9.30am; April 20, Easter Sunday Service, Dobwalls, 10.00am; May 18, St Neot, 11.00am.

ALSO IN THE CHURCH: Sunday, March 30, 3.00pm: Levow Kesson mixed voice choir concert in aid of church funds. £5 to include refreshments.

IN THE HALL: DOBWALLS WARM SPACE: Every Tuesday, 11.00am to 3.00pm until April 15.

SATURDAY CREAM TEAS: 2.00pm. March 15 in aid of Shelter Box, April 19, May 24. £5.

KNIT & KNATTER: Thursday, 2.00pm to 4.00pm. Every fortnight. March 6 & 20, April 3 & 17, May 1, 15 & 29.

Can you play an electric organ or an electric piano? If you can, Dobwalls United Church would love to hear from you.

The church has both instruments and it would be great if you could join us on Sunday mornings to lead the singing.

NEWS from Dobwalls Into Gardening

Our first speaker for this year was one of our members, Jim Stephens, who spoke on hardy and indoor Begonias. Amazing the number of varieties there are and how they range from flowering to ornamental leaves.

We have a great programme for 2025 covering vegetables and flowers as well as some wildlife, and regularly have a Bloom of the Month competition, here it has been won with a Witch Hazel.

The Dobwalls allotment site at Twelvewoods will have been up and running for 13 years this April, it now has 20 plots being worked.

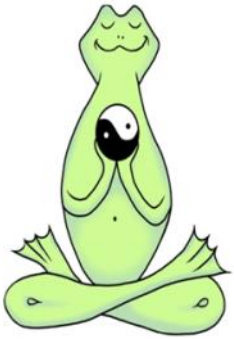

An event for your diary – on Saturday, May 17th, we are holding our Plant Sale at the Dobwalls United Church Hall where we'll have vegetable plants, perennials and annuals for sale at great prices as well as a cake stall and tombola.

Meetings are held at Dobwalls United Church Hall on the first Monday of each month at 7.30 pm and new members are always welcome to join us. For more information, search for our Facebook page 'Dobwalls Into Gardening Community' or phone 01579 320417.

People often think acupuncture is just for treating pain and anxiety. However, it can address so much more, including improving immunity, boosting energy, relieving depression, headaches, menopause and many muscular skeletal issues.

Come and experience acupuncture in my clinic here in Dobwalls. I see everyone as an individual, treating the root cause plus the manifesting symptoms to promote healing.

#ACUPUNCTURECHANGESLIVES

Acupuncture Changes Lives

THE Dobwalls Beer & Cider Festival committee has presented a £4,000 cheque to the Cornwall Air Ambulance Trust, the proceeds of the 2024 event. The popular annual festival has now raised almost £30,000 for the life -saving service. The committee thanks everyone for their support and looks forward to an even bigger and better two-day festival and family fun day at Dobwalls Football Club this July. SEE PAGE 13

MORE SPRING FLOWERS — JUST TO BRIGHTEN UP YOUR DAY

More from the Highwayman

THE pub landlady Nicole Chamberlain has big plans for the Beer Garden: “I want to do a lot more stuff outside. The beer garden has never been used to its full potential and it has huge potential. It’s a great space for families to come and enjoy themselves in the summer and warmer months and I’d like to have a permanent marquee in the garden.”

The bar supervisor is another local person, Ashleigh Workman, who has more than a decades experience in the hospitality industry. Nicole plans to have a staff of about 10 and they will all be local people.

The pub will host a quiz night on Mondays and will have live music once a month on a Saturday.

Some little bits of trivia which might come in handy on quiz night!

The pub is owned by the Stonegate Group which took the opportunity while it was closed to have some essential work done, including fire safety work.

One of the pub “regulars” will be the licensee Simon Barker’s dog Bob, an 18-month-old Cockapoo named after the comedian Bob Mortimer.

Simon has considerable experience in hospitality. He and his wife Louise had the Commonwood Manor Hotel in Looe for eight years. He jokes he’s better qualified in the study of wine than in accountancy. He holds a WSET Diploma. WSET stands for the Wine & Spirit Education Trust.

Nicole is well-known as a hairdresser and beautician. She also works at Elysian Hair, an award-winning salon in Looe.

Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe writes:

I WAS in Dobwalls recently and took the opportunity to walk down to the Jubilee Community Field, past the football club on the right and the field on the left where pitches are being created for the club's junior teams. These two large fields were provided through development money from a planning Section 106 agreement and the Community Infrastructure Levy. They're a great asset to the village and parish. Open spaces, like the community field and its woodland, and sports facilities are vital to any community.

When I can, I drop in to the Dobwalls Warm Space in the church hall. It's a chance for me to chat to the residents about any issues of concern, especially about adequate heating in their homes in these difficult times. I'm delighted to have used £500 from my Community Chest Fund to contribute towards this worthy cause. A huge 'thank you' to the organisers who provide warm food and companionship in a comfortable setting.

I have supported the Cornwall-wide roll out of 20mph speed limits, which includes Dobwalls. I believe this will make people feel safer when walking and cycling in the village. There has also been a three-year programme to replace all standard highway streetlights with LED to save carbon and enhance the night time environment for nature and the special dark night sky area close by on Bodmin Moor. Alongside the programme, in appropriate locations in the villages, streetlights have been dimmed or turned off between midnight and 5.00am. I hope this has been well received by residents.

As the council year draws to a close, may I take this opportunity to thank the chair and parish councillors of Dobwalls, all of whom are volunteers, for their exceptional and efficient work. Working with their extremely capable parish clerk Laura, they deal with many issues and sometimes must make difficult decisions. It is always a pleasure and privilege to work with them. The parish is in very safe hands!

Finally, if you enjoy walking your dogs in the countryside, a timely reminder that it is lambing season. Please always keep your dogs on leads on the moors and on footpaths close to livestock and please pick up their poo as it can cause miscarriages in ewes.

I wish you all a wonderful Springtime and a Happy Easter with your families.

Cornwall Councillor Jane Pascoe.

OASIS COME TO DOBWALLS FOOTBALL CLUB

ADVANCE notice — the club has its big music night on Saturday, June 28, with a fantastic Oasis tribute band. Tickets are £10 and are available from Patrick Mutton – 07771974383 or patrick.mutton@biffa.co.uk

John Blake, from the club, says: "We'll have food and a bar and would be delighted to see as many people as possible for a great night in support of your local football club."

The junior teams are looking forward to playing on the new pitches in the field across the lane from the club. John says the work on the pitches is proceeding well.
