4. Unitary Councillor's Report
   Councillor Pascoe reported that her division is Liskeard South & Dobwalls which covers a wider rural area and half of Liskeard. I have 5 parishes to serve stretching from Boconnoc boundary to Trenant Point at Looe with 30 villages and hamlets.
   I am also an active town councillor. committees include, planning and facilities/property.
   I attend the Liskeard town forum and was an inaugural member over 30 years ago.
   I am a member of the Liskeard and District Twinning association and was pleased to celebrate the 50th Anniversary last year.

   Cornwall council.
   This year I sat on various committees which include:
   - East sub planning committee
   - Miscellaneous licensing committee
   - Tamar Bridge and Torpoint ferry Joint committee
   - Cornwall inshore fisheries and conservation authority.
   - Cornwall local plan working group
   - Devonport defence growth fund working group
   - Rural transport and connectivity group

   I am the current chairman of SE Cornwall Community Area Partnership (SECCAP), which includes all of the 29 parishes in SE Cornwall.

   I deal with many issues on a daily basis which may include, housing, potholes, flooding, drains, trees, safeguarding, children and transport.

   It is a privilege to work with the Dobwalls Parish Councillors and their Parish Clerk. They are an important part of team Cornwall in helping us run the county services efficiently.
   I truly appreciate your kindness and support, you are my eyes and ears on the ground.
